Habib Bank AG Zurich has initiated another phase in Internet banking with the launch of an online letter of credit. The paper-free service is particularly beneficial to fast moving companies that aim to save time.

The letter of credit online aims to save time for customers

'At Habib Bank AG Zurich we are striving to keep ahead in the technology stakes. In a world where time is money, our new online Letter of Credit provides our valuable customers with a fast and efficient way of requesting a Letter of Credit at any time, anywhere,' said Reza Habib, joint president.

Habib Bank AG Zurich has also added over 30 websites pages including current account, savings account and commercial loan.

"These new functions are yet further proof of Habib Bank AG Zurich's ongoing commitment to innovation, service and reliability," said Habib. "This new service provides further efficiency, empowering customers to control their money and making life easier for them."
